Torrance Mayor Patrick J. Furey Announces Return of 4th of July Fireworks in 2015 State of the City Address

Torrance, Calif., Sept. 24, 2015 – Mayor Patrick J. Furey surprised the audience by announcing the return of a 4th of July fireworks show during his 2015 State of the City Address at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Torrance. At the luncheon, Torrance CitiCABLE presented an introductory video that highlights Torrance's economic development efforts.

In his speech, Mayor Furey discussed developments in Torrance including the redevelopment at Del Amo Fashion Center and Muller Co. building at the city's financial district. A veteran's celebration, Armed Forces Day 5k run, the Torrance Transit Park and Ride Regional Terminal, and a rubber-tire trolley service that would bring back the Red Car to Torrance were also discussed.

Mayor Furey's State of the City Address and CitiCABLE introductory video will be cablecast on Torrance CitiCABLE Channel 3 (Time Warner); 36 (Verizon); and over-the-air on channel 25.2 beginning Oct. 7 at 10 a.m., 2 p.m., and 8 p.m.

Visit www.TorranceCA.Gov/1928.htm to view the full transcript and watch the introduction video and State of the City Address. The videos will be available later this evening.
